In the Fall of 1974 the Yankees, along with 16 other Major League clubs, joined in a progressive new concept in Baseball scouting called the Major League Scouting Bureau. The Bureau will offer member clubs a variety of services geared toward free agent and professional scouting. The Bureau presently employs 67 scouts to accomplish its scouting function in the continental United States.

YANKEE TRIPLE-A FARM CLUBS—Newark (1932-49), Kansas City (1938-54), Denver (1955-58), Richmond (1956-64), Toledo (1965-66), and Syracuse (1967-present).

FACTS ABOUT THE "NEW" YANKEE STADIUM

Scheduled for re-opening in time for Opening Day, 1976 season.
Modern seating with unobstructed views from every seat.
Playing field lowered to improve sight lines from lower deck, which will also be closer to foul lines.
A ring of modern, multivapor lighting fixtures on the new roof.
Five sets of double-width escalators, located behind home, and in right and left fields.
Four new elevators, including one strictly for press.
Nineteen private, spacious club-level lounge boxes.
Enlarged Stadium Club, and a public 300-seat cafeteria.
Ground level auditorium.
New executive offices adjacent to press level, overlooking field.
New ticket offices on ground level.
Widened concourses within Stadium, and additional ramps.
Seating capacity of 54,099 for baseball, and potential for 7500 additional seats in left and centerfield bleachers, which will be landscaped, leaving bleacher seats only in right.
Scoreboard to run 560 feet, covering area formerly occupied by billboard advertising. It will be graced by the famed "facade" design of the old Stadium, and will include three basic sections: the game in progress board, the message board, and a screen capable of showing instant replays or other events.
Expanded, improved press box with separate sections for radio and TV, snack facilities, sliding acrylic windows, heating, private access to clubhouses.
Modern press room, located on sub level near clubhouses.
Private players' wives' lounge.
Expanded, air-conditioned dugouts.
Modern clubhouses.
Air-conditioned, "old fashioned" ticket booths.
Facelift for surrounding environs, known as "Yankeeland."
New sidewalks, trees, and lighting throughout area.
New exit off Major Deegan Expressway into Stadium parking.
Pedestrian footbridge from Bronx Terminal Market Parking area.
Parking for 6900 cars in two garages and 13 surrounding decks, lots and structures; including a four-level garage adjacent to first base side of Stadium, the largest parking garage in New York City.
Renaming of 157th Street to Hall of Fame Plaza, and closing of the street to vehicular traffic.
Playing surface of natural grass.
Bullpens on either side of monument area, in left-center field, including dugouts for pitchers.
Monuments on a five-foot mound, surrounding flagpole, with plaques on wall, and access for fans to view them.
Outfield fence, of plywood and padding, averaging 14 feet high from right field foul pole to center, where a chain link fence tops it. Wall, without chain link-fence, will be nine feet high from center field foul pole.
Outfield fence distances from home plate:

THE MANAGER AND HIS COACHES

VIRDON, WILLIAM CHARLES (Manager) #21

Born June 9, 1931 in Hazel Park, Michigan. Resides in Springfield, Missouri. Married Shirley Shemwell 11/17/51. Children: Debbie, Linda and Lisa. College: Drury College.

A surprise choice to manage the Yankees in 1974, Bill wound up winning the Sporting News Manager of the Year Award for his job bringing the Yankees closer to the top than in any of the previous ten seasons . . . ran a well disciplined spring training camp, and continued experimentation with his lineup throughout the season, bringing the Yankees on fast at the end . . . his move of Elliott Maddox to center and Bobby Murcer to right was his most publicized maneuver . . . joins Joe McCarthy, Bucky Harris, Casey Stengel and Ralph Houk as Manager of the Year winners . . . named Yankee manager on January 3, 1974 after attempts to hire Dick Williams were thwarted . . . Bill had already agreed to manage Denver (PCL) for the 1974 season, and received permission to take Yankee offer . . . signed a new, two-year pact after the '74 World Series . . . Sporting News had honored Bill once before—as National League Rookie of the Year while with St. Louis in 1955 . . . hit .281 with 17 homers that year . . . traded to Pirates in 1956, and established reputation as outstanding center fielder . . . member of 1960 World Champions, and hit famous ground ball in 7th game of World Series which struck Tony Kubek in the throat . . . Bill originally signed with the Yankees, by some scout as Mantle and Murcer, Tom Greenwade . . . that was back in 1950 . . . traded to Cardinals with Mel Wright and Emil Tellinger for Enos Slaughter in 1954 . . . 1956 was best season—hit .319, second only to Hank Aaron in N.L. . . . managed in Mets' organization after his playing career, helping to develop Nolan Ryan, Tug McGraw, Jerry Koosman and Ken Singleton . . . rejoined Pirates as a coach in 1968 and was right-hand man to Danny Murtaugh . . . succeeded Danny as skipper of Bucs in 1972, and won the Eastern Division title, losing the Championship Series to Cincinnati in the last inning . . . had the Pirates in the race again in 1973, but was fired in September in hopes Murtaugh would spark the club to another pennant . . . Mets won, however . . . has also managed in Winter Ball, leading San Juan to 1971 championship . . . selected by New York BBWAA as the "Good Guy" award winner for 1974 . . . hobbies include hunting and fishing . . .

MANTLE, MICKEY CHARLES (Special Instructor) #7

6-0, 200. Born on October 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, Oklahoma. Resides in Dallas, Texas. Married Merlyn Johnson 12/23/51. Children: Mickey (21), David (17), Billy (16) and Danny (14).

Only the seventh player in Baseball history to be elected to the "Hall of Fame" the first time he was eligible. With side-kick and teammate Whitey Ford, together they became 20th and 21st Yankees in "Hall of Fame" in 1974 . . . Mickey has appeared annually since his retirement after 1968 season as a Special Instructor in spring training and serves the Yankees as a good-will ambassador throughout the year . . . His 18-year career was one of most dramatic in Yankee history . . . with injuries to both legs taking a heavy toll from his magnificent performances . . . Mickey played in more games as a Yankee than any other player (2401) and had more at bats (8102) . . . Most powerful switchhitter in game's history . . . ten times hit a home run from both sides of the plate in one game, a major league record. His 18 home runs in series play easily topped Babe Ruth's previous World Series high of 15 . . . American League MVP in 1956, 1957, 1962 . . . won the Triple Crown in '56, and also the Hickok Belt as the top professional athlete of the year in 1956 . . . Mickey ranks high in most offensive all-time Yankee categories: third in runs scored (1677), third in hits (2415), fourth in doubles (344), second in homers (536) and fourth in RBIs (1509). His 1734 walks are third on the all-time list and his 1710 strikeouts are first . . . One of most popular athletes in modern sports history.

ALOMAR, SANTOS (IF) (AL-o-mar) #2

5-9, 169. Born on October 19, 1943 in Salinas, Puerto Rico where he resides. BB. TR. Married Maria Velazquez 12/23/63. Children: Sandia (10), Santos (9), Roberto (7).

OBTAINED: Purchased from California Angels, July 8, 1974.

Sandy joined the Yankees last July and the team played .625 ball from then on, winning 50 of 80 . . . his defensive work held the infield together, and he was credited with helping to make Jim Mason a better shortstop . . . Sandy also did a job at bat, putting together a 13-game hitting streak to raise his average to .283 . . . a hard collision at second with John Briggs caused a painful rib injury which limited his hitting ability in the final weeks, but he continued to sparkle defensively . . . Sandy is still the all-time stolen base leader of the Angels with 139, and led California for five consecutive years . . . he was reduced to limited duty with the arrival of Denny Doyle in 1974, and was thus available to the Yankees . . . One of 18 players who have appeared with both Yankees and Mets . . . played in 648 consecutive games, seventh longest American League streak in history, running through May 22, 1973 . . . Member of 1970 All-Star team . . . hit safely in 22 straight games that season . . . also plays shortstop, but has spent most of his ten major league seasons at second . . . his .261 batting average last year (a combined figure), was a career high.

BLOMBERG, RONALD MARK (OF) (BLOOM-berg) #12

6-1, 205. Born on August 23, 1948 in Atlanta, Georgia. Resides in Riverdale, New York. BL. TR. Married Mara Goldsmith 10/25/70. Children: none. College: DeKalb College.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 (and baseball's #1) selection in June, 1967 Free Agent Draft, by scout Atley Donald.

One of baseball's strongest hitters, Ron is a home run threat every time he bats . . . proved it during the final week of the '74 season by belting four home runs in his last ten at bats, after seeing only limited action in the preceding weeks . . . converted back to the outfield last spring after two years at first base, his original position . . . a lifetime .307 hitter with over a thousand at bats, but most of them against right handers . . . was 16-58 against lefties last season . . . trade of Murcer is expected to give "The Boomer" more playing time . . . Ron has hit two homers in a game four times in his career . . . belted one over the right field roof in Detroit during batting practice during his first week with the Yanks in 1969 . . . after a sensational baseball and basketball career at Druid Hills High School in Atlanta, Ronnie turned down some 200 basketball scholarship offers to sign with the Yankees as the nation's number one draft choice . . . his major league career has been hampered by repeated muscle pulls in his legs, but he is one of the fastest runners in the league when healthy . . . big year was in 1973, when he held a .400 batting average as late as July 4, a feat not performed since Ted Williams and Stan Musial both did it in 1948 . . . talkative and personable, Ronnie is one of New York's most popular athletes . . . now winters in New York where he makes numerous speaking appearances . . . seldom strikes out.

BONDS, BOBBY LEE (OF) #25

6-1, 190. Born on March 15, 1946 in Riverside, California. Resides in San Carlos, California. BR. TR. Married Patricia Howard 5/3/63. Children: Barry (10), Ricky (9), Bobby (5). College: Riverside City College.

OBTAINED: Acquired from San Francisco Giants in exchange for Bobby Murcer, October 22, 1974.

It took one of the biggest one-for-one trades in baseball history to bring Bobby Bonds to the Yankees . . . his arrival in New York is expected to make him one of the best known athletes in the United States . . . Bobby was the 1973 Player of the Year in the National League, and the Most Valuable Player in the All-Star Game . . . He is one of only five men in history to steal 30 bases and hit 30 homers in one season, and one of only two (with his Giant predecessor Willie Mays), to accomplish the feat twice . . . came closest to a 40-40 year by hitting 39 homers and stealing 43 bases in '73 . . . His 263 career steals are more than any Yankee in history ever compiled . . . he has won three Gold Glove awards for fielding brilliance—1971, 1973 and 1974 . . . He has led the National League's outfielders in double plays twice and in percentage once . . . his 28 home runs leading off a game ties the major league record set by Eddie Yost . . . twice Bobby has been a member of the All-Star team . . . will retain his uniform number 25 on the Yankees . . . starred in baseball, football and track at Riverside Polytechnic High School, running a 9.5 100 yard dash . . . was California State long-jump champion with a leap of 25'3" . . . A sister, Rosie, was the United States women's record holder in the hurdles and a member of '64 Olympic Team . . . a brother, Bobby V., played pro football with Kansas City . . . Bonds was signed by Giant scout Evo Purisch in 1965 and reached the majors on June 25, 1968, belting a grand slam home run on his third at bat . . . only 20th Century player to do it in his first game . . . he led the National League in total bases in 1973 and hit 11 leadoff homers that season . . . Bobby does many speaking engagements in the off-season, and enjoys fishing . . . he was fishing with Jim Ray Hart when news reached him about the trade . . . twenty-four hours later, he was in New York, meeting the press, and trying out his new Yankee uniform . . . if Bobby has a flaw, it's with strikeouts . . . he holds the major league record with 189 in 1970 . . . however, he's reduced that total considerably over the past few years.

CHAMBLISS, CARROLL CHRISTOPHER (1B) #10

6-1, 212. Born on December 26, 1948 in Dayton, Ohio. Resides in Riverdale, New York. BL. TR. Married Audrey Garvin 9/30/73. Children: none. College: Mira Costa Junior College., and UCLA.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians with Dick Tidrow and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

Noted as a strong finisher, Chris come on fast at the end of the 1974 season to provide a big bat in the pennant drive . . . his 18-game hitting streak from August 30-September 21 was the longest by a Yankee since Tony Kubek's 19 in 1961 . . . Chris was the American League's Rookie of the Year in 1971, knocking Ken Harrelson out of the first base job in Cleveland after only 118 minor league games . . . In one year at UCLA, Chris hit .340 with 15 homers and 45 RBIs, the latter two figures both school records . . . The Most Valuable Player in the National Baseball Congress tournament in 1969 with a .583 average . . . went right to Triple-A ball upon signing with the Indians and led the American Association in hitting . . . he was believed to be the first rookie to ever lead an AAA circuit . . . the son of a navy chaplain, Chris played little league ball at Camp Pendleton, California . . . he played football, basketball and baseball at Oceanside High School in California . . . in his first major league game, hit a 2-run single to beat the White Sox 2-1 . . . spent some of his youth in St. Louis, and Arlene Henley, now Mrs. Elston Howard, was his babysitter . . . Chris' wife wrote a sports column for a Cleveland newspaper prior to the trade to New York.

DOBSON, PATRICK EDWARD (P) #36

6-3, 201. Born on February 2, 1942 at Depew, New York. Resides in Cape Coral, Florida. TR. BR. Married Kathy LaGesse 11/14/73. Children: none.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Atlanta Braves in exchange for Syracuse players Wayne Nordhagen, Frank Tepedino, Dave Cheadle and Alan Closter, June 7, 1973.

A real professional on the mound, Pat is one of the great competitors in baseball . . . enjoyed his second highest victory total last year by tying Medich for the club lead at 19 . . . in 1971, he was one of four Oriole pitchers to win 20, a feat not performed since 1920 . . . Cuellar, McNally and Palmer the others . . . Pat was one of the best pitchers in baseball in the second half of 1974 . . . he started the season slowly, his record falling to 6-11 on July 7 . . . an official scorer's decision 24 hours after that game added three earned runs to his season total . . . from that point on however, "The Dobber" was 13-4 with eight complete games and a 2.57 ERA . . . best performance was the first game of that span, a two-hit shutout vs. Oakland (7/12) . . . the veteran righthander, who attended Lancaster (N.Y.) High School, signed with the Tigers and spent seven years in the minors . . . then became a member of Detroit's 1968 World Champions before drifting on to San Diego . . . had big years in Baltimore, including selection to the 1972 All-Star team . . . dealt to Atlanta in the Earl Williams trade, he was brought into the American League for a third time when the Yankees swung the trade for him . . . hurled a no-hitter in Japan during the 1971 Oriole tour, only one ever tossed there by an American.

GURA, LAWRENCE CYRIL (P) #39

6-1, 178. Born on November 26, 1947 in Joliet, Illinois. Resides in Litchfield Park, Arizona. TL. BL. Married Cindi Davenport 8/21/69. Children: none. College: Graduate of Arizona State.

OBTAINED: Assigned from Spokane to Syracuse as part of transaction involving sale of Duke Sims to Texas, May 25, 1974. Purchased from Syracuse, August 18, 1974.

Larry's arrival on the Yankees last August turned into a big move for the club during the pennant drive . . . he promptly won his first five decisions, which included two shutouts and a 1.55 earned run average with only eight walks in 46 innings . . . he beat the Tigers twice, California, Baltimore and Cleveland once each before Boston finally stopped him on September 24 . . . Larry did it in a craftsmanlike way, without throwing the ball by hitters, but he had a knack for recording the big strikeout when he needed it . . . 1974 was the fifth year in a row split between the minors and the majors for Larry . . . he was the Cubs' number two pick in June, 1969, after a 19-1 senior year with a 1.73 ERA for Coach Bobby Winkles at Arizona State . . . All-American in 1969, and All-Conference in 1968-69 . . . Attended Joliet East High School, participating in track, swimming, and cross country as well as baseball . . . While still with the Cubs, Larry and his wife visited Yankee Stadium during a road trip to New York in 1973 . . . traded to Texas by the Cubs on November 13, 1973, and spent last spring training with the Rangers . . . after transfer to Syracuse, appeared in Mayor's Trophy Game in Yankee uniform last May . . . four of his seven Syracuse victories were shutouts . . . wound up with the lowest earned run average in the International League, 2.13 . . . First major league win was an August 5, 1970, a complete-game, 7-hitter against Montreal . . . enjoys archery, hunting and tennis . . . as an amateur, threw two consecutive no-hitters with 23 strikeouts in each game . . . in college, played with or against a host of current big leaguers, including Maddox, Chambliss, Jackson, Randle, LaGrow, Bando, Monday, Hooton, and Gentry.

HUNTER, JAMES AUGUSTUS "Catfish" (P) #29

6-0, 195. Born on April 8, 1946 in Hertford, North Carolina, where he resides. TR. BR. Married Helen Overton 10/10/66. Children: Todd (5) and Kimberly (2).

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 31, 1974.

Catfish Hunter became a household name last December, when virtually every baseball club jumped at the chance to sign the winner of the 1974 Cy Young Award . . . Yankees were his choice, and his signing was announced on New Year's Eve . . . It brought to New York a man who has won 20 or more in each of the last four seasons, for a combined 88-35 record, with a 4-0 World Series mark and a 3-2 ALCS record . . . The six-time All-Star was also The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year for the American League in 1974, by virtue of his league-leading earned run average, and his 25 victories, tying him with Ferguson Jenkins for the league lead . . . his Yankee contract will run for five years . . . Clyde Kluttz originally signed him in 1964 to a large bonus when Clyde was a scout for the Kansas City Athletics . . . they remained friends as Kluttz joined the Yanks, and Clyde was instrumental in signing him again . . . Hunter first achieved national fame at the 1967 All-Star Game in Anaheim, the first ever on prime-time TV, when he went five innings of relief, and finally lost on a Tony Perez homer in the 15th . . . in 1968, he hurled a 4-0 Perfect Game against Minnesota, in only the 12th home game ever played by the Oakland A's . . . it is the only regular season Perfect Game in the A.L. in the last 53 years . . . by 1971 he had mastered his game as a control artist, and led Oakland to four straight division titles, and World Championships in each of the last three years . . . finished sixth in MVP voting in 1974 . . . the son of a tenant farmer in Hertford, N.C., which has been home since he was born . . . enjoys hunting and fishing, but a hunting accident almost halted his career . . . a brother accidentally shot Hunter in 1964, causing the loss of his small right toe . . . the Athletics signed him anyway, after a brilliant baseball and football career at Perquimans High School . . . never pitched in the minors, as his first year was spent on the disabled list . . . lives today on a 110-acre farm growing peanuts, soy beans, turnips et al, and doing much of the farm work himself . . . he has been relatively injury free, save for a broken right thumb, suffered in the 1973 All-Star Game, when Billy Williams hit him with a line drive . . . although he missed a month, he still won 21 games, and led the league in winning percentage for the second consecutive year . . . "Cat" is the youngest in a family of eight children.

JOHNSON, ALEXANDER (OF) #23

6-0 204. Born on December 7, 1942 in Helena, Arkansas. Resides in Detroit, Michigan. BR. TR. Married Julia Augusta 2/2/63. Children: Jennifer (6), Alex Jr. (4). College: Detroit Institute of Technology.

OBTAINED: Purchased from Texas Rangers, September 9, 1974.

The American League's 1970 batting champion and a four-time .300 hitter, Alex joined the Yankees last September to provide one of the most famous Yankee home runs ever . . . in his first game in a Yankee uniform (Sept. 10), he belted a 12th inning home run off Diego Segui in Fenway Park to give the Yankees a big 2-1 victory . . . it broke a sensational Dobson-Tiant pitching duel and put the Yanks in first place . . . that was the only game in which Alex played the outfield for the Yanks, serving as a DH or pinch-hitter in his other appearances . . . his batting title was a close decision over Carl Yastrzemski, and came in his first American League season . . . he hit .303 as a rookie with the almost-pennant-winning Phillies . . . went to the Cardinals on October 27, 1965 in a deal involving Yankee broadcaster Bill White . . . after military service and a return to the minors, went to Cincinnati and earned Comeback of the Year honors in 1968 . . . despite all the movement over the years, Alex is a .291 lifetime hitter with 97 stolen bases, 20 of them last season . . . his brother Ron is a running back with the New York Giants.

LYLE, ALBERT WALTER "Sparky" (P) #28

6-1, 196. Born on July 22, 1944 in Dubois, Pennsylvania. Resides in Danvers, Mass. TL. BL. Children: Dane (6) and Shane (1½).

OBTAINED: Acquired from Boston Red Sox in exchange for Danny Cater, March 22, 1972.

Sparky has 1.98 ERA in three seasons as a Yankee . . . one of the most identifiable and popular members of the team . . . a flair for the dramatic . . . his entries into games are usually in crucial situations, and he enjoys the pressure . . . set Yankee records in 1974 by appearing in 66 games and by finishing 59 of them . . . set an American League record in 1972 with 35 saves, broken a year later by John Hiller . . . is in the record books for most lifetime saves, but the method of measuring them changed in 1974, and he was credited with 15 . . . has won or saved 100 Yankee games in his three seasons with the club . . . originally discovered and signed by the Orioles after striking out 31 men in a 17-inning sandlot game, never having played high school ball . . . Boston drafted him after one season in the Oriole chain . . . injured late in 1967, he failed to pitch in the World Series after playing a key role in getting the Red Sox there . . . has really only had one bad year in eight seasons as a relief pitcher, a rare feat . . . has never started a game in the majors . . . had a career high in innings pitched in 1974 . . . his ERA has been over 3.00 only once . . . named "Most Cooperative" by photographers in 1973 . . . he enjoys photography himself . . . winner of the Fireman of the Year award from The Sporting News in 1972.

MADDOX, ELLIOTT (OF) #27

5-11, 181. Born on December 21, 1948 in East Orange, New Jersey. Resides in East Hanover, N.J. BR. TR. Married Valerie Scott 10/27/69. Children: Donielle Laurisse (3). College: Graduate of University of Michigan's pre-law program.

OBTAINED: Purchased from the Texas Rangers on March 23, 1974.

The purchase of Elliott from Texas last spring training failed to produce many headlines, but by the time the year was over, Elliott was the number eight finisher in American League MVP voting . . . A classic case of giving a man a chance to show what he could do . . . Recognizing his outstanding defensive ability, Bill Virdon used him more and more in the late innings, until May 26, when he sat Bobby Murcer down and put Maddox in center . . . two days later, Murcer returned to the lineup as the right fielder, and the Yankee outfield defense was set . . . "If Maddox can hit .250, he'll remain in center," said Virdon, who is certainly one to recognize center field prowess . . . All Maddox did was bat .303, never falling below .300 from June 1 on . . . great catches became a regular part of his game, and his 18 assists were second in the league . . . had a 15-game hitting streak in June . . . didn't hit his first home run until August 18, but he wasn't looked to for power . . . Elliott is an East Orange, New Jersey native (Union High School) who signed with Detroit out of the University of Michigan after his pre-law studies . . . sent to Washington as part of the six-man "McLain Trade" of 1970 and outlasted all those involved on the Washington side, moving with the club to Texas . . . underwent a hernia operation after the '74 season to correct a game-incurred injury, on the next-to-last day of the year . . . spent his winter in New Jersey and became a popular banquet speaker . . . has good speed, and can also play the infield.

MARTINEZ, FELIX ANTHONY "Tippy" (P) #40

5-10, 177. Born on May 31, 1950 in LaJunta, Colorado, where he resides. TL. BL. Married Carol Sario 1/3/70. Children: Jacen (4). College: Colorado State University.

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent for 1972 season by scout Sam Suplizio.

Tippy was virtually unknown when he arrived in spring training as a non-roster player a year ago, but he showed a great deal of poise and ability in camp, and was jumped from Kinston to Syracuse as the season opened, skipping Double-A . . . his work with the Chiefs was equally impressive, and the Yankees purchased him on August 8 . . . he made his major league debut the next day, stopping the Angels in Anaheim with 1⅓ innings of shutout relief . . . ironically, Tippy had seen his first major league game at Anaheim Stadium several years before . . .

wildness was somewhat of a problem as the season continued, and his work was limited . . . He's been virtually a full-time relief man since the Yankees signed him in 1972 . . . tied for the Carolina League lead in saves with 15 in 1973 . . . had eight for the Chiefs last season . . . of Spanish-Mexican descent, but as a Colorado native, speaks very little Spanish . . . received a host of honors in high school and college, and is only three credits short of a degree from Colorado State . . . played winter ball at Lara, Venezuela for Bobby Cox this winter . . . his favorite player as a boy was Whitey Ford.

MASON, JAMES PERCY (SS) #22

6-2, 190. Born on August 14, 1950 in Mobile, Alabama. Resides in Theodore, Alabama. BL. TR. Married Cathy Cassidey 1/28/71. Children: Malinda (3 mo.) College: U. of South Alabama.

OBTAINED: Purchased from Texas Rangers, December 6, 1973.

Jim surprised a lot of people last year with his bat . . . his previous showings in the major leagues had left little room to believe he could contribute much more than a good glove . . . the glove was there all right, and so was a .250 average with more power than was expected . . . showed a lot of range in the field, and became even better when Sandy Alomar joined the club as second baseman . . . the youngest regular on the team, and still learning . . . impressed the Yankees in 1973 during a stretch as the regular shortstop when Toby Harrah was injured . . . a high price tag didn't deter the Yanks from making the purchase when Jim was available . . . Jim grew up playing Little League and Babe Ruth League ball in Mobile . . . pitched a perfect game in the Alabama State Babe Ruth Tournament . . . one of seven children in the Mason family . . . military service slowed his progress in pro ball, but he reached the big leagues in time to spend the final weeks with the Washington Senators . . . his first three major league hits were against the Yankees . . . Jim can play second, but every one of his 152 games last season was spent at short.

MAY, RUDOLPH JR. (P) #43

6-3, 207. Born on July 18, 1944 in Coffeyville, Kansas. Resides in Huntington Station, L.I., N.Y. TL. BL Married to Carol Montgomery. Children: Monique (8) and Edith (5½). College: San Francisco State.

OBTAINED: Purchased from California Angels, June 15, 1974.

Obtained at the trading deadline in 1974, Rudy immediately stepped into the starting rotation on the Yankees and demonstrated the pitching ability many always felt he had despite losing records with the Angels . . . he was the senior member of the Angels at the time of his trade, and the number two strikeout pitcher of all time on the Angel franchise . . . Debuted for the Yanks on a rain-swept Sunday afternoon in Shea (6/23) and stopped Detroit 4-1 with a 4-hitter . . . went on to hurl five 4-hitters, a 2-hitter, and a six-hitter in winning eight of 12 decisions as a Yankee. He allowed only 75 hits in 114 innings, or 5.9 per 9 innings . . . Injuries sidelined him twice, once placing him on the 21-day disabled list after a fall during a game in K.C. . . . a pulled leg muscle also hampered him in August . . . one of the hardest throwers on the Yankee staff, Rudy struck out 16 Minnesota Twins on August 10, 1972 . . . In his first major league start, April 18, 1965, he had a no-hitter against Detroit with two out in the eighth . . . Originally signed by the Twins, he was drafted by the White Sox after the 1963 season and traded to Philadelphia in October of 1964 . . . In December, 1964, the Angels obtained him in a deal involving Bo Belinsky . . . Rudy, nicknamed "Dude," was raised in Oakland, where he played Babe Ruth and American Legion ball . . . played baseball and football at Castlemont High School . . . was a San Francisco Giant fan . . . served in the National Guard . . . played against Willie Stargell and Tommy Harper in high school . . . Rudy's hobby is scuba diving, and he has worked commercially as an underwater diver on salvage assignments.

McGREGOR, SCOTT HOUSTON (P) #18

6-1, 190. Born on January 18, 1954 in El Segundo, California, where he resides. TL. BB. Single. Colleges: Loyola Marymount, El Camino.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Jackie Warner.

The most highly regarded pitching prospect in the Yankee organization, Scott led the International League in innings pitched in his first season at the Triple-A level last year, and earned All-Star selection . . . those who have seen him in two previous spring trainings (as a non-roster invitee), compare him to Whitey Ford as a southpaw craftsman with an excellent move to first . . . the number one Yankee draft choice of 1972 is still only 20 years old, and still learning . . . considered quite mature for his age . . . played baseball and basketball at El Segundo High School and was a teammate of Kansas City third baseman George Brett . . . was 18-1 with a 1.24 ERA in his senior year with 158 strikeouts in 83 innings . . . was 58-6 overall with 496 strikeouts in 364 innings . . . allowed only two earned runs in twelve innings last spring and stayed with the parent club until March 30 . . . a fine hitter who was used frequently as a pinch-hitter by the Chiefs last season, for whom he hit .220 . . . nicknamed "Scooter" . . . enjoys photography and watching hockey.

MEDICH, GEORGE FRANCIS (P) (MED-itch) #33

6-5, 232. Born on December 9, 1948 in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. Resides in Pittsburgh, Pa. TR. BR. Married Donna Creekmore 6/15/70. Children: Kelly (2). College: Graduate, University of Pittsburgh, currently attending medical school there.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #29 selection in June, 1970 Free Agent Draft, by scout Randy Gumpert.

George "Doc" Medich tied with Pat Dobson as the leading winner on the Yankee staff in 1974 . . . it followed a brilliant rookie campaign which produced the fifth leading earned run average in the league . . . a fourth-year medical student who hopes to become an MD in 1977 . . . never pitched at the Triple-A level . . . Yanks brought him up in 1972 to pitch the Mayor's Trophy Game . . . he beat the Mets 2-1, then rejoined the club after the West Haven schedule was complete . . . 1973 was his first spring training, as he had always been in school at that time . . . the American League's Player of the Month in July, 1974, when he won five straight complete games, including an 8-inning no-hitter (broken up in ninth) against Kansas City . . . led the staff in complete games . . . an all-around athlete who starred in baseball and football at Pitt, after a career of baseball, football and basketball in high school . . . Dr. Bobby Brown, the former Yankee third baseman who became a heart specialist in Fort Worth, has been an advisor to George during his career . . . Doc has a strong arm and has adjusted well in the past two years to hard work . . . he never pitched more than 119 innings in any one season in the minors.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 selection in June, 1968 Free Agent Draft by scout Gene Woodling.

A key man in the Yankee attack, Thurman by his own admission had an off year last season . . . but injuries early in the year hampered his throwing ability, causing him to shift to a sidearm motion . . . despite a defensive year far off his Yankee record—.998 in 1971, his fellow players voted him his second consecutive Gold Glove award . . . considered one of the tops in the business at calling a game and handling pitchers, and getting better all the time . . . He made only one error in 1971, tying Elston Howard's all-time Yankee record . . . a three-time American League All-Star . . . Drafted number one by the Yankees out of Kent State, where he was an all-American . . . played only 99 minor league games before joining the Yankees as regular catcher . . . promptly won the Rookie of the Year Award in 1970, one of two seasons in which he has batted .300 . . . finished strong last year, going 20-49 in the final 13 games as the Yankees fought for the pennant . . . Thurm has great speed for a catcher and is a smart baserunner . . . a fine golfer and all-around athlete . . . interested in real estate.

5-11, 179. Born on March 1, 1953 in Chicago, Illinois, where he resides. BB. TR. Married Dolores Butler 11/26/72. Children: Shalonda (2).

OBTAINED: Yankees' #5 selection in June, 1971 Free Agent Draft by scout Lou Maguolo.

Larry experienced the thrill of jumping from Class A to a major league pennant race last September . . . the Florida State League season was over and Larry was home in Chicago when he was purchased by the Yankees to give added base running depth in the final weeks of the season . . . he was a logical choice for the assignment as the top base stealer in the organization, with 150 thefts in the past three seasons . . . stole 62 in 74 attempts for Ft. Lauderdale's pennant winning Yankees in 1974 . . . although Larry admittedly needs to improve his hitting, he is an outstanding defensive outfielder who puts his speed to good use in covering a lot of ground. Most of his experience has been in center field . . . Larry attended Phillips High School in Chicago, and earned eight letters, playing baseball, football and track . . . in baseball, he was named All-State, and a High School All-American . . . hit a home run in Wrigley Field during the city championships . . . Billy Williams was his favorite player.

PAGAN, DAVID PERCY (P) (PAY-gan) #53

6-2, 172. Born on Sept. 15, 1950 in Nipawin, Saskatchewan, Canada where he resides. TR. BR. Married Brigitta Kuzniar 10/10/70. Children: Todd (4), Craig (3), and Shari (1½). College: Bellevue Community.

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent for the 1970 season by scout Eddie Taylor.

Hard-throwing Dave Pagan reminded a lot of observers of Nolan Ryan last season, and not only because Baltimore manager Earl Weaver said he threw as hard . . . Dave also experienced blister problems on his fingers, similar to an early Ryan ailment . . . The highlight of Dave's up and down season was his first major league victory, a complete game, six-hitter, beating the Royals 8-2 in Kansas City . . . he was recalled from Syracuse on May 1, optioned back on August 8, and recalled on September 14, following the International League playoffs . . . a fast ball is his specialty . . . one of the few players to come from western Canada . . . raised on a farm in Snowden, Saskatchewan, a town so small his telephone number was "8" . . . ERA and strikeout champion in the Carolina League in 1972 . . . discovered while playing ball at Bellevue Community College in Washington.

PINIELLA, LOUIS VICTOR (OF) (pin-ELLA) #14

6-2, 198. Born on August 28, 1943 in Tampa, Florida, where he resides. BR. TR. Married Anita Garcia 4/12/67. Children: Lou Jr. (6) and Kristi (3). College: University of Tampa.

OBTAINED: Acquired with Ken Wright from Kansas City Royals in exchange for Lindy McDaniel, December 7, 1973.

One of the better trades in Yankee history brought "Sweet Lou" to New York . . . coming off a disappointing year, he bounced back to lead the Yankees with a .305 average to raise his career mark to .288 . . . it was his third time over .300 for a full season, and his average never fell below .292 for the entire '74 campaign . . . Lou was the American League's Rookie of the Year in 1969, when he became a last-minute acquisition of the Kansas City Royals in their first season . . . the Seattle Pilots had drafted Lou from Cleveland, but he went to Kansas City on April 1 in a deal involving ex-Yankee Steve Whitaker . . . went on to become all-time Royals' leader in games, at bats, hits, doubles, triples, total bases and runs batted in . . . it took a long time for Lou to establish himself . . . signed by Cleveland scout Spud Chandler (the ex-Yankee), in 1962 . . . drafted

RICKS, EDWARD LOUIS (P) #51

6-4, 190. Born on January 5, 1951 in Bastrop, Louisiana, where he resides. TR. BR. Single. College: Grambling.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #6 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Atley Donald.

Hard-throwing Ed Ricks earned promotion to the Yankee roster this year on the basis of his overall improvement on the mound . . . he's been a consistent .500 pitcher with an amazing similarity in his yearly records . . . the big, quiet right-hander played baseball and basketball at Union High School in Bastrop . . . he was the only boy in a family of six children, and was a fan of Bob Gibson and Roberto Clemente . . . Ed was a non-roster player in spring training last season, facing the Texas Rangers twice before his assignment to West Haven . . . finished the season pitching for Syracuse . . . needs only 30 credits for his degree from Grambling, where he is a student in the off-season . . . led Eastern League with five shutouts last season.

6-2, 205. Born on April 7, 1948 in Bakersfield, California, where he resides. TR. BR. Married Mary Milligan 7/18/68. Children: none. Colleges: Bakersfield College and San Fernando State.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians as part of a three-team trade, March 19, 1974. Yankees sent Jerry Moses to Detroit, Tigers sent Jim Perry to Cleveland, Indians sent Sawyer and Walt Williams to New York, Tigers sent Ed Farmer to New York.

Rick had his second straight fine year in the minors last season, serving as one of the mainstays of the Syracuse pitching staff . . . He had a 2.79 earned run average and struck out 136 batters . . . The year before, he led the Texas League in victories and had the fourth best ERA in the circuit . . . the Indians considered him one of their top minor league prospects . . . he was originally their number five pick in the January 1968 Free Agent Draft . . . a center on his high school football team, Rick also played baseball and basketball, and was All-Conference at Bakersfield College as a pitcher in both 1967 and 1968 . . . The Yankees brought Rick up to the majors on April 27 and he made his debut against Texas the next day in the second game of a doubleheader . . . the obtainment of Dick Woodson from Minnesota a week later sent him back to the minors, where he concluded his fine season with the Chiefs . . . this is Rick's first spring training with the Yankees.

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent for 1961 season by scout Eddie Taylor.

Mel is at the crossroads of his career, and everyone who knows this senior member of the team is pulling for the big sinkerball specialist to come back . . . last member of the 1964 pennant winners still with the club . . . joined the team August 12, 1964 after being "Minor League Player of the Year" at Richmond . . . ten years later, Mel ranks high on most Yankee lifetime charts . . . three-times a 20-game winner, five times an All-Star . . . Mel is the active shutout leader in the American League with 40 . . . shoulder problems put him on the disabled list for the first time last season . . . starting against the Angels at Shea on June 11, he was forced to leave the game . . . it was his 272nd consecutive start without a relief appearance, an American League record . . . his only other appearance all year was a two-inning relief stint against Boston on August 4 . . . ironically, the season started as one of Mel's best, with five victories in April . . . Mel has pitched seven opening day games for the Yankees . . . his 164 career victories are fifth on the all-time Yankee list, only four behind Bob Shawkey . . . this has been accomplished without the benefit of the "Murderer's Row" power other Yankee pitchers have had in the lineups . . . Mel has a bit of power himself . . . he has hit an inside-the park grand slam among his seven career homers, and was five-for-five against Washington in 1964.

TIDROW, RICHARD WILLIAM (P) #19

6-4, 215. Born on May 14, 1947 in San Francisco, Cal. Resides in Hayward, Cal. TR. BR. Married Susan Keeler 6/17/67. Children: Tammy (5). College: Chabot College (Hayward, Cal.).

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians with Chris Chambliss and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

Dick served the Yankees as a capable starter and long relief man in 1974, following his obtainment from the Indians . . . He quickly won his first two starts and remained in the regular rotation until late August, when Bill Virdon made a valuable long relief man out of him . . . in either case, he was always ready for work . . . Dick was the number two starter on the Indians (after Gaylord Perry) since his rookie season of 1972, when The Sporting News named him Rookie Pitcher of the Year in the American League . . . his ERA as a relief pitcher last season was 2.45 . . . A gruff looking competitor on the mound . . . Originally drafted number three by Cleveland in the special phase of the January 1967 Free Agent Draft . . . spent most of 1968 in military service, slowing his progress to the majors.

VELEZ, OTONIEL (IF-OF) (VEL-ez) #24

6-0, 187. Born on November 29, 1950 in Ponce, Puerto Rico, where he resides. BR. TR. Single.

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent by scout Jose Seda for 1970 season.

Otto is a line-drive hitter who really hits the ball hard . . . he had a year and a half of great play at Syracuse, prompting the Yankees to bring him up last June 28 . . . a few days later, he went on a tear which saw him reach base ten consecutive times, not including a sacrifice fly . . . but as Chambliss got hot, Otto's playing time was limited down the stretch . . . the Anthony Quinn-looking Velez was the winner of the 1973 James P. Dawson Award as the top rookie in spring training . . . he went to Syracuse and finished second in the league in both homers and RBIs, while leading in walks . . . made the All-Star team in both 1973 and 1974 . . . his major league debut in September, 1973 produced a three for four performance against Mickey Lolich . . . hit two home runs in one game on September 23, 1973 against Cleveland . . . can play first, third or the outfield . . . played winter ball in Caguas, Puerto Rico this past off-season to resharpen his batting eye . . . hoping to cut down on his strikeouts in the future.

WALLACE, MICHAEL SHERMAN (P) #41

6-2, 204. Born on February 3, 1951 in Gastonia, North Carolina. Resides in Reston, Virginia. TL. BL. Single. College: Northern Virginia Community College.

OBTAINED. Acquired from Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for Ken Wright, May 3, 1974. Assigned to Syracuse and purchased by Yankees, May 23, 1974.

Mike served the Yankees as a fine long relief man last season, and when given a start on September 12, turned in 7⅔ shutout innings in a crucial game against Baltimore . . . Tidrow finished up as the Yanks won 3-0 . . . Mike was unscored on in twelve of his 23 appearances, and as late as July 17, his ERA was under 2.00 . . . made his major league debut in Shea Stadium as a member of the Phillies on June 27, 1973, and hurled a complete game, 7-hit victory over the Mets . . . before joining the Yankees this year, he had a win and a save for the Phillies, both coming in a doubleheader at Shea against the Mets on April 14 . . . member of his minor league all-star teams in both 1969 and 1970 . . . Mike's only major league defeat was on July 2, 1973 . . . he's won seven straight since then.

WHITE, ROY HILTON (OF) #6

5-10, 171. Born on December 27, 1943 in Los Angeles, California. Resides in Wayne, New Jersey. BB. TR. Married Linda Hoxie 12/15/66. Children: Loreena (7) and Reade (2½). College: Compton Junior College

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent for the 1962 season by scout Tuffie Hashem.

Roy was one of the major contributors to the Yankee cause in 1974, although much of his duty came as a designated hitter . . . he filled that role 53 times for New York, while playing the outfield in 67 games . . . Roy led the club with 15 stolen bases, advancing himself to fifth place on the all-time Yankee list . . . among his other big league accomplishments are two All-Star selections . . . switch-hitting triples in one game (a record) . . . switch-hitting homers twice . . . setting an American League record with 17 sacrifice flies in one season (1971) . . . becoming the first Yankee outfielder to field 1.000 in a season (1971) . . . running up a 388-consecutive game playing streak (8/31/71-5/21/74) . . . hitting .290 or better for three straight seasons . . . and currently standing 20th on the all-time Yankee home run chart with 109 . . . As an outfielder, Roy covers a lot of territory with a sure glove . . . as a baserunner, he's quick and has good sense . . . as a hitter, he chokes up but can still hit with power . . . served several years as the team's cleanup hitter . . . practices karate . . . originally an infielder, Roy was moved to the outfield in 1967 . . . he has been a local resident for several years, distinguishing himself among the community with personal appearances . . . grew up in Compton, California, playing with such future big leaguers as Reggie Smith, Dave Nelson, the late Don Wilson, Paul Schaal, Bobby Tolan and Dock Ellis.

WILLIAMS, WALTER ALLEN (OF) #13

5-6, 194. Born on December 19, 1943 in Brownwood, Texas. Resides in Euclid, Ohio. BR. TR. Married Minnie Thomasson 2/25/66. Children: Deron (8). College: City College of San Francisco.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians as part of a three-team trade, March 19, 1974. Yankees sent Jerry Moses to Detroit, Tigers sent Jim Perry to Cleveland, Indians sent Williams and Rick Sawyer to New York, Tigers sent Ed Farmer to New York.

Walt saw less action last year than he ever had in the majors, and although he would have liked to play more, he never lost his good natured personality or his popularity among fans . . . among the most recognized players in the game, Walt got an ovation whenever he appeared around the league . . . long referred to as "No-Neck," he prefers Walt, and that's the way Yankee fans came to call him . . . Walt originally signed with Houston in 1963, and hit .381 at Modesto that year . . . Transferred to the Cardinal organization he led the Pacific Coast League in hitting in 1966, then was traded to the White Sox for John Romano . . . Went to Cleveland for Eddie Leon on October 19, 1972 . . . Walt attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, which produced the DiMaggio brothers and O.J. Simpson . . . he has done extensive work with underprivileged children, is a fine basketball player, and enjoys singing, drawing, and public speaking.

NON-ROSTER PLAYERS
INVITED TO YANKEE SPRING TRAINING CAMP

DINEEN, KERRY MICHAEL (OF) #49

5-11, 165. Born on July 1, 1952 in Englewood, N.J. Resides in Chula Vista, California. BL. TL. Married Renee Zuhlke 2/17/74. Children: none.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #4 selection in June, 1973 Free Agent Draft by scout Pete Coscarart. On Syracuse roster.

One of the most talked about youngsters in the Yankee system is making his first visit to a major league spring training camp as a non-roster invitee . . . After a .352 debut season at Oneonta in 1973, Kerry continued to make good contact with the ball last year at West Haven, batting .283 with ten homers before finishing the year at Syracuse . . . Good outfielder, with good speed . . . moved to West Coast from New Jersey when he was five.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #3 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Don Lee. On Syracuse roster.

Dennis returns to the Yankee spring camp this season as a non-roster invitee to help handle the pitching . . . he was in camp in 1973 as well . . . since he was last observed by the parent club, he has continued to improve behind the plate, and last year caught 120 games for the champion Fort Lauderdale Yankees, hitting a fine .251 . . . a hard man to strike out . . . a tough, durable receiver, although his physical appearance is deceptive, as he is built more like an infielder.

IN THE YANKEE CLUBHOUSE

Dr. Sidney S. Gaynor is the Yankee team physician, a position he's held continuously since 1947. He was the longtime Director of Orthopedic Surgery at Lenox Hill Hospital . . . Gene Monahan, 30, is in his third season as Yankee trainer, having worked his way up the minor league system beginning as bat boy with Ft. Lauderdale in 1962 . . . Pete Sheehy, equipment manager and chief of the clubhouse, is the senior Yankee employee, having joined the club in 1927.

YANKEE BROADCASTERS . . . Phil Rizzuto, the greatest shortstop in Yankee history, is back for his 19th season behind a Yankee mike . . . he was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1950, and a telecaster during the 1964 World Series . . . Frank Messer, considered one of the top play-by-play men in American broadcasting, is in his eighth year with the Yankees, following a four-year stint at Baltimore . . . Bill White has been part of the broadcast team since 1971. He's the former great first baseman for the Giants, Cardinals and Phillies who won seven Gold Glove awards . . . Dom Valentino, heard only on radio, is the newest member of the team. He was also the radio voice of the Nets and Islanders last winter, and is a former announcer for the Kansas City-Omaha Kings of the NBA. Manchester Broadcasting produces Yankee games over flagship radio station WMCA and a large network . . . WPIX Channel 11 is now in its 25th season telecasting Yankee baseball.
